

Style & Design Phase

I want the website to have three key things, Instagram link, locations and why we are committed to giving travelers insight into hidden gems, top locations and adventure opportunities they may be unaware of. The website should be simple and user friendly, with travel pictures and design that give it a luxurious style. I used bootstrap to look for a template that seemed close enough to what I was originally looking for.